

National Parents' Council Post Primary and the NCCA New Junior Cycle Parent Information Evenings 2013

The National Parents' Council Post Primary in conjunction with the NCCA, will host Information evenings nationwide for parents on the upcoming changes to the Junior Cycle. These evenings are open to all parents, guardians and parent association members to attend. These events are free to attend and light refreshments will be available on arrival.

If you would like to join us, please email information@npcpp.ie to register.

Also on the night, NPCpp will give a brief outline about their work since 2003 (10 year plan) and future strategies.
